

HORPHAG RESEARCH

Robuvit® Labelling Guidelines Agreement

Horphag Research Limited is the exclusive worldwide marketer and developer of the Robuvit® Quercus Robur Extract brand and the worldwide owner of the Robuvit® trademark and the Robuvit® patents and patent applications¹. The Robuvit® trademark is used as a trademark and an internet domain name.

Robuvit® is also registered in non-English characters including Katakana in Japan under ロブビット® and in Chinese characters under 樂補衛® and 乐补卫®.

The Robuvit® trademark cannot be used without the prior authorization of Horphag Research whether as a trademark, a trade name or an internet domain name. Any application and registration of the mark Robuvit or a mark including Robuvit made by the purchaser, whether as a trademark, a trade name or an internet domain name, will belong exclusively to, and is hereby assigned to, Horphag Research and any good will arising from the use of such a trademark, whether as a trademark, a trade name or an internet domain name, shall inure solely to the exclusive benefit of Horphag Research and would not create any right in favor of the purchaser.

All purchasers of Robuvit® and the purchaser signing this agreement (the "Purchaser") agree to and comply with Robuvit® labeling requirements for Quercus Robur Extract sold by Horphag Research. To this end Horphag Research has established these labeling guidelines (the "Robuvit® Labeling Guidelines") which must be adopted for finished goods containing Robuvit®.

Specifically, purchasers of the Robuvit® Quercus Robur Extract are licensed to use the following trademark, if and only if, they comply with the following terms and conditions:

Use of the Robuvit® trademark on finished goods:

- The quantity of Robuvit® Quercus Robur extract contained in each daily serving of finished product, whether in the form of tablets, capsules, gel caps, etc., must contain at least a minimum amount of 60mg of Robuvit® Quercus Robur extract if the Robuvit® trademark or logo is used on the front of the package in conjunction with or as a product name.
- The amount of Robuvit® per serving needs to be specified on the packaging of the finished goods.
- Products that contain a daily intake having less than 60mg of Robuvit® content may only employ the Robuvit® trademark in the list of ingredients and cannot use Robuvit® in the product name.
- Products that contain less than 60mg of Robuvit® daily intake per unit dosage may not refer to Robuvit® Quercus Robur extract's health benefits as described in published research articles or any of Horphag's marketing material.
- The products must comply at all times with the specifications and standard of quality prescribed by Horphag or approved from time to time by Horphag to maintain the efficacy of the products containing Robuvit® Quercus Robur extract and the goodwill of the trademark Robuvit®.
- The label must contain the line:

Robuvit® is a registered trademark of Horphag Research Ltd. Use of this product may be protected by one or more U.S. patents and International patents.

HORPHAG RESEARCH

Use of the Robuvit® Logotype

The Logotype is helpful to consumers trying to identify genuine Robuvit®. When used on the Purchaser's label, the following rules apply, in addition to the rules mentioned above under the title "Use of the Robuvit® trademark on finished goods":

- Must be followed by "®" in superscript;
- The following line must appear on the label:
Robuvit® is a registered trademark of Horphag Research Ltd. Use of this product may be protected by one or more U.S. patents and International patents
- The Logotype are not to be distorted or contoured in any way:

(Logos can be downloaded on www.robuvit.com or can be sent upon request)

Neither the Robuvit® trademark nor the Robuvit® Logotype can be used unless this Letter of Agreement is completed by purchaser and returned fully executed to Horphag Research.

This Agreement does not constitute or convey any license or right under U.S. patents numbers 9,066,924 and 9,028,890 (relating to sexual wellness) and/or other international patents for which a separate license agreement(s) is required.

Compliance with the Horphag Research's Labelling Guidelines is mandatory and non-compliance will result in trademark and patent infringement. Failure to comply will also forfeit purchaser's ability to continue to purchase Robuvit® from Horphag Research.

This agreement is binding on any assignee, successor or affiliate of the parties.
